"IVORY" LYNCH

Found Not Guilty of the First of Two Burglary Charges.

POLICE SURPRISED AT VERDICT.

They Thought They Had a Good Case Against Him—Alex. Gurley, the Alleged Abductor of Little Cecelia Peck, Will Get His Hearing on the More Serious of the Two Cases Against Him To-day.

In the criminal court yesterday, the case of State vs. "Ivory" Lynch, colored, was put on trial. Lynch was charged with robbing Miss Rose Fleischmann, of the Second ward, of $40 worth of clothing from her room, to which access was gained by the alleged burglar through an open door.

The evidence in the case was purely of a circumstantial kind, and at one time ran into a very spicy nature, owing to the confession of misconduct of the defendant on the night of the robbery. Lizzie Williams, colored, testified that she was presented with certain clothes, which were afterwards discovered to be the stolen goods of Miss Fleischmann, but she denied any knowledge of improper ownership.

Officers James Larkins and Sam Wells testified that upon searching Lynch after his arrest, at the city lock-up, a number of the stolen articles were secreted in his stockings. Attorneys J. P. O'Brien and Richard Ryan defended "Ivory," while Frank W. Nesbitt represented the state.

After the arguments were made by the attorneys, which were very brief, the case was given into the hands of the following jury:

John Armbruster, Elmer Carlin, George Brandfass, William Bashar, Edward Vaas, Henry Bruner, Andrew Stoetzer, H. Seabright, Richard Donahue, Thomas B. Really, Samuel Rhodes and D. L. Ratcliff.

The jury was only out a short time. Upon Judge Huges asking if they had come to a verdict, they replied that the defendant was found not guilty, whereupon the jury was polled and dismissed.

The acquittal of Lynch on this charge was a great surprise to the police, who rounded him up and secured the evidence against him.

A second charge against Lynch of feloniously entering the Ellis house on South Chapline street, with intent to rob, was set down for hearing next Friday morning.

This morning the case of state vs. Alex. Gurley, for the abduction of Cecelia Peck, will be put on trial. The first count, that of attempted criminal assault, will be called to-day. Mr. Frank Nesbitt will look after the state's interests. It will be remembered that Gurley was arrested near Elm Grove with the child, whom he had prevailed on to accompany him from Wheeling, while she was returning from school.

State Supreme Court.

Yesterday morning the state supreme court of appeals met and heard the arguments in the case of S. W. Goff vs. Franklin McLain, of Wood county, from the fifth circuit, Judge Tavenner. This case was to have been argued on Saturday, but could not be heard and was postponed till yesterday. The action was submitted.

The sixth circuit, Judge Blizard, had four cases before the court, of which the cases of C. E. Hogg vs. Anderson C. Hartley, of Jackson county, and McCaughy & Co. vs. W. G. and Louis Bennett, executors, Gilmer county, were continued. In the matter of Shinguff, John & Co. vs. Gainer & Sturm, of Calhoun county, and in the case of Mercantile Bank of Memphis vs. J. M. Boggs, orders of submitted were entered.

Court adjourned to meet this morning and consider the eighth circuit cases of Judge Doolittle.

JOLLY BUILDERS

Will Have Their Annual Excursion to the Lakes.

The local Builders' Exchange has decided to have an excursion over the Erie and Niagara falls, and the lakes, following their annual custom, which the members of the Exchange look forward to with as much pleasure as the friends of the Exchange who have participated in the pleasures of an excursion on previous occasions. A committee composed of Messrs. J. R. Butts, P. Gilligan and C. E. Schencklein, have made arrangements with Passenger Agent Sherman, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie, for an excursion over this road, via Cleveland and the lakes, to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, and incidentally to Toronto, Canada.

The committee is very enthusiastic with the encouragement of a number of people who have been anxiously awaiting their decision. While the road and destination had been decided upon, it still remains to get a proper date, which will be done in a few days. A call will be issued to the members of the Exchange during the week for a general meeting, to complete further arrangements.

DETAILS COMPLETED

For Grocers' Day—Committees Promise a Host of Fine Attractions.

The final details have been about completed for the big outing and picnic to be given by Wheeling retail grocers at Mozart Park next Thursday. This annual affair is of some general interest, since on this occasion "holiday hours" are observed at the "corner grocery," and housewives must keep next Thursday in mind. This will be the twelfth annual outing, and from the arrangements made it will be the biggest and the best.

The festivities will begin at the park at 2:30 p. m., and will continue in one round of pleasure until midnight. There will be attractions galore for old and young, and the ladies and children will appreciate the many treats, including the distribution of cakes and lemonade. Foot races, tug of war, dancing, bowling and other things "too numerous to mention" have been outlined by the committee in charge. Mayor's band and orchestra will furnish the music.

WE have a fine second-hand Klanch & Bach upright piano which belongs to a party who has left the city and placed it in our hands for sale. If you want a bargain call and see it.

A McCOLLOCH MONUMENT.

County Commissioners Will be Asked to Erect One Over the Grave of Major McColloch, of "McColloch's Leap" Fame.

Prof. William Matthews, of Brilliant, Ohio, was in the city yesterday, having returned from out in the country, where he circulated a petition that requests the county commissioners to erect a monument to the memory of Major Samuel McColloch, the hero of Indian times, who leaped down Wheeling hill with his horse and sped across the Peninsula, to the surprise and admiration of the pursuing Redskins. Everybody to whom the petition was presented, gave it their endorsement with their signature, and the matter will like come up at the next meeting of the board.

Major McColloch's bones rest near old Fort Van Meter, about a mile and a quarter from the Short creek cemetery, and Prof. Matthews and many other people think that it is meet and fitting to erect a monument to the daring pioneer. Some suitable stone should mark his grave. Some people favor erecting a tablet on the National road, where McColloch's leap is supposed to have occurred, but Prof. Matthews is interested in a monument over his grave, in Liberty district.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

Examination of the Teachers Begins Saturday, With the Test of Principals.

The examination of teachers will begin next Saturday, when the principals are to be put to the test. The teacher proper will be examined Friday and Saturday, June 23 and 24. Superintendent W. H. Anderson and Messrs. J. A. Miller and Alex. O. Maxwell, of the board of education, constitute the examining committee. Substitutes will be required to take the eighth year course. There are about 142 principals and teachers employed by the board of education, not counting the substitutes.

The board of education will meet in regular monthly session next Thursday evening, and the chief item of business will be the election of enumerators, a matter that is always attended to at the June meeting of the board.

The commencement of Lincoln school, the colored school, will be held June 28, and the high school affair will occur on the following evening. Both will be held at the Grand opera house.
